

National Access & Scaffolding Confederation
www.nasc.org.uk

Ray Johnson BSc

With over 30 years' experience of the construction industry including work as a Quantity Surveyor, Site Engineer and Manager as well as nearly 20 years running Safety and Access Ltd, Ray leads the management team. As well as working closely with clients at a senior level Ray is actively involved with the HSE, NASC and other industry safety groups where he advises and gives regular presentations on work at height issues to all industries and other interested parties.